In Squamish, VCH contributes to the health of more than 19,000 residents by providing a range of direct and contracted health care services that support people from birth to end of life, from hospital care through community, public and environmental health, and residential care.

- 1,024 surgeries
- 4,142 inpatient days
- 266 births & babies supported
- 112 home support clients
- 79 residential care beds
- 936 child immunizations (0-5 years)
- 14,430 emergency department visits
- 15,869 home support visits
- 2,248 home care nursing visits
- 2,107 home care rehab visits